SUCCESSFUL

HUNT

Knobull.com

Job Search Program Process

If you are finding looking for a new job, frustrating and time-consuming, then transform your experience with selected segments of our job-hunting program. It's helped thousands of people successfully land new jobs – not just any job, but one they really wanted.

Our experts will help you present as a confident, authentic and compelling candidate for the jobs you are interested in. We'll show you how to get noticed and shortlisted. We can even advise on your salary package.

Save time, energy and headspace by working with your career expert to use selected segments or the complete program to land your ideal role.

Campaign Support

Building a job campaign strategy and advising on all stages of the recruitment process

Your Career Pitch

Uncovering your strengths, skills, expertise, achievements and how to articulate these in relation to your target jobs

Be noticed. Get shortlisted. resume and LinkedIn

Creating resume and applications which get you shortlisted and a LinkedIn profile that gets you noticed

Recruiters

Who to contact and how to manage the relationship so you are a preferred candidate

Personal branding

Develop your online personal brand, building your reputation and visibility, using the technology to widen your audience, build contacts and positive PR

Interviews and Networking

Presenting you at your best – confident, authentic, persuasive and highly employable!

Smart Job Hunting

Using a targeted approach, working with headhunters, networking and proactively creating opportunities

Digital recruitment – beat the bots!

Using AI and recruitment technology to your advantage to increase your candidate visibility and rankings

Business Intelligence and Research Services

Academic Search Engine, direct links to research sources and access to business intelligence on companies, sectors, recruiters, personalized job vacancy reports and a business news service

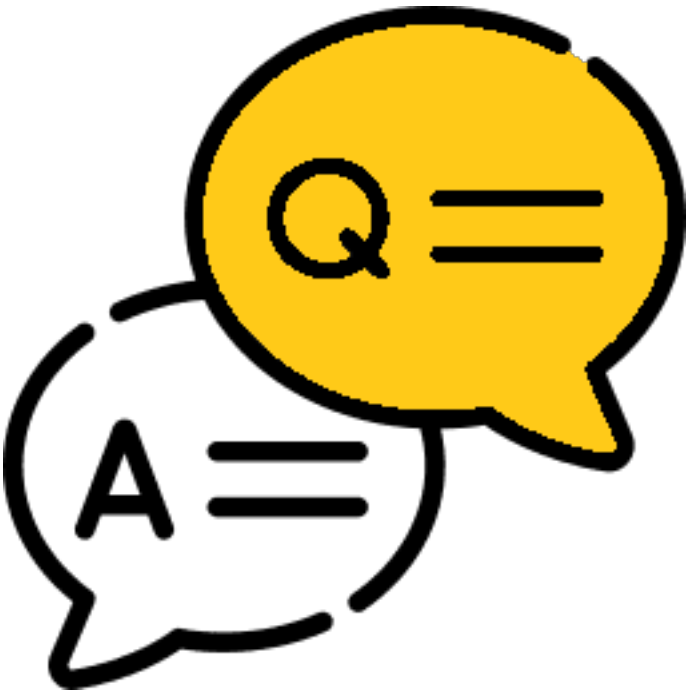

The Job Search coaching program will work if you are:

- Hoping to clarify the type of roles you want in your preferred career path
- Frustrated at not being shortlisted or offered jobs for which you are suitable
- Looking for a job after graduation and for the first time in a while
- Keen to develop a confident and compelling personal brand, self marketing skills and widen your visibility

Benefits of the Job Search Program

Find the right role for you!

Save time and energy

Build your confidence

Boost your longer-term employability

Chat with your Knobull expert to improve career search, academic research, coursework, presentation + more success!